

<https://franklinsmith.com.au/job-board/boilermaker/>

Boilermaker

Description

THE SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE MUST HAVE INDUSTRIAL EXPERIENCE/BACKGROUND

An established Tier 2 company with an outstanding track record working on a range of Industrial and Commercial projects is seeking an experienced Boilermaker to join their team in Brisbane.

The successful applicant will be joining a close-knit group of hardworking team members. This is a permanent and full-time position that offers a competitive package.

Company Description

- An established Tier 2 company with an outstanding track record working on a diverse set of projects up to $40m in value
- The business specializes in Commercial, Education and residential projects up to $40 million in value
- Join a dynamic, collaborative and energetic team with a strong sense of teamwork

Working environment

- This company prides itself on having an incredibly talented and dedicated team that aims to deliver high work standards and attention to detail for every project they take on. They are committed on building long-lasting relationships through innovative and quality design management and construction solutions.

Responsibilities

- A demonstrated safety first work ethic and professional attitude
- Welding using MIG, stick and TIG (TIG not essential but looked upon favourably)
- Undertaking steel fabrication and repairs to high standards
- Willing to both contribute and learn from others; and
- The ability to build clear and open communication with clients, management, supervisors, leading hands and team members.

Hiring organization

Franklin Smith Australia

Employment Type

Full-time

Beginning of employment

ASAP

Industry

Construction

Job Location

Brisbane

Date posted

February 7, 2024

Qualifications

- Trade Qualified Boilermakers
- Experience with heavy fabrication/welding and repairs
- Outstanding safety behaviours
- Great work ethic and commitment to seeing a project through to the end
- Driver's license and own transport
- Experience working directly with site teams
- Excellent communication and management skills.
- Strong work ethic, workmanship & quality focus with attention to detail
- Ability to multitask and assist staff where required to achieve deadlines
- Hold Australian Work rights (Residential or Visa)

Job Benefits

- The company offers a market leading package, paying up to $120,000 package and you will be working in a dynamic team culture, and offered a strong career development plan that facilitates growth and professional development

Contacts

To apply for this role, send an updated CV via the apply now link or contact Tommy Pastura on 0451417075 or via email; tommy@franklinsmith.com.au.